DETAILED ACTION

Introduction

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 10/20/2009 has been entered. Claim 25 has been amended. Claims 25-28 and 33-35 are active.
2. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
3. In response to the amendment to claim 25, in which the newly added limitation is deemed to be new matter and/or vague and indefinite as set forth below, the grounds of rejection in Office action mailed 4/22/2009 have been have been withdrawn for now, and to be reinstated, if appropriate, after the 112 issues are resolved.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. Claims 25-28 and 33-35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

Art Unit: 1794

More particularly, the newly added term “stable” in claim 25 is new matter. Applicants' argument at Remarks page 8:

“Support for this amendment can be found at page 10 wherein the uses of the material, inter alia, covering sensitive surfaces of reaction tanks, necessitates that the foams be "stable."

However, it is inconceivable that how “covering sensitive surfaces” has anything whatsoever to do with rendering the foam material necessarily being “stable”. A clear support is required in the next reply.

5. Claims 25-28 and 33-35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

More particularly, the newly added term "stable" in claim 25 is a relative term which renders the claim indefinite. The term "stable" is not defined by the claim, the specification does not provide a standard for ascertaining the requisite degree, and one of ordinary skill in the art would not be reasonably apprised of the scope of the invention.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 25-28 and 33-35 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
